Dear School Community,

What an eventful end to this first term. With our Moonlight Cinema evening, great excursions, a raffle and a very purple mucky sliming.

EPILEPSY FUNDRAISER

Today we celebrated our awareness of epilepsy and raised funds for the Epilepsy Foundation. Supporting our nurse Sue, the student leaders and SRC helped organise a wear purple day and colouring competition, asking students for a gold coin donation. As a result of everyone's involvement today, our school raised a total of $639.15 which will be donated to the Epilepsy Foundation. In celebration of everyone's efforts, Sue and I got mucked with buckets of slime during today's end of term assembly. While it was uncomfortable, it was all worth it for this good cause.

OUTDOOR CLASSROOM

In today's assembly, we also officially opened our outdoor classroom. We asked Sonia Hegarty to cut the ribbon as we declared the space open. Sonia leads our Buildings, Grounds and Sustainability Sub Committee of School Council, and with the support of these parent volunteers, she organised the concrete slab, the personalised brick pavers and the outdoor furniture. We need to also thank Lincoln R. who is one of our dads that led the installation of the furniture. I have already seen many classes utilising the space for lessons, with many students using the space during play breaks too.

NEW SCHOOL COUNCIL

With the election process complete and the first meeting of the new school council passed, I am pleased to advise you of the makeup of our new school council.

Mark Colagrande – Executive Officer

Donald Parton - President

Jon Hurford – Vice President

Tomma Morris - Treasurer

Michelle Ziino - Secretary

Patrizia Amerena - Minute Taker

Martin Barnes – Canteen Sub Committee

Sonia Hegarty – Building, Grounds & Sustainability Sub Committee

Zoe McQuillan – Grants & Policies

Tanya Tribuzio

Dan Copping

Matt Niciak

Sharnee Chislett – Community Group

Georgia Michaleas – Out of School Hours Care

With this we also need to take the opportunity to farewell and thank the outgoing members for their efforts in supporting the good governance of our school. Please join me in thanking Kylie Pascoe, Helen Myroforidis, Amanda Handley, Olivia Franco and Betsy Dray.

RAFFLE RESULTS

Following the success of the Moonlight Cinema evening, the Community Group's raffle attracted good ticket sales. While later in this newsletter the Community Group acknowledges the supporters of the Moonlight cinema and raffle, I would also like to thank our local State Member (and ex CWPS student) Anthony Cianflone MP, who donated a lovely easter basket for this raffle. The lucky recipients all happened to be students of our school who took home their prizes last week. Congratulations go to:

First prize – Chiara M 3/4S

Second prize – Sasha O 4B

Third prize – Olivia D PD

Fourth prize – Ava N 6F

Fifth prize – Will R 2M

As we commence the school holidays, I wish you all well. Whether you are celebrating easter, travelling or relaxing at home, do so safely and happily, in good company.

See you all when school returns at 9am on Monday 15 April 2024.

Kind regards,

Mark COLAGRANDE

House Spelling Bee

Over the last few weeks, the House Captains have been devising ways to boost House pride and spirit across the school. There have been many great ideas discussed, with one coming to fruition last week, The House Spelling Bee. Each day, a different pair of House Captains hosted a Spelling Bee for Grades Prep-3, designing questions and certificates for everyone involved.

For the prep question game we asked the preps questions like, what is this shape and then we would draw the shape and see if they knew what it was. The overall experience was amazing and we would definitely do it again, although the preps didn't listen very well it was still very enjoyable

From Iggy & William the gold house captains

For the grade 1's spelling bee, we went really well. They were VERY talented. In the end, Jack T from ½ E in gold house. We really enjoyed running it.

From Zara and Damian, the Green House Captains.

For the grade 2's there spelling bee went really well and we really enjoyed running it. Everyone did a really amazing job and had lots of fun. Now as you already know the winner of the grade 2's spelling bee was Flora from 2w in red house.

From your Blue house captains, Noah and Teddy.

Being a house captain comes with many fun jobs like running the house spelling bee for the grade 3s. I enjoyed watching them write and enjoying being there. The participants went really well and hopefully had so much fun. We had a 5-way tie. The winners where Scout M from 3N Red, Evie D 3A Blue, Ella S from 3A Red, Aston, 3S Red, Edison 3N.

From Juni and Maggie, The Red House Captains
